Leaflets available at bioRe®:

- 1. Beejamrat (seed treatment)
- 2. CPP + cow urine (seed treatment)
- 3. Neem seed extract
- 4. GOC
- 5. Top Ten
- 6. Neem oil and Hing
- 7. Cow urine
- 8. Buttermilk
- 9. Early stage protection of cotton
- 10. Jeevamrat
- 11. How to spray

The leaflets are available in English and Hindi

उपरोक्त पत्रक हिन्दी और इंगलिश मे उपलब्ध है

The informations contained in these leaflets are based on the knowledge and experience of bioRe[®] staff and its associated farmers. Some of the recipes were adopted from farmer(s organisations) of other states or are based on biodynamic recipes (i.e. CPP) transferred by Peter Procter.

bioRe® Research Station
5th km Milestone. Mandleshwar road

Kasrawad, Distr. Khargone

MP-451228 India Tel.: +919926838549

Email: biore.lokendra@gmail.com

Date: February 2014

Authors: Lokendra Singh Mandloi

Claudia Utz Juliana Zweifel Rajeev Verma

Preparation and Application of self-made organic pest control products

BUTTERMILK

Use: against all bollworms

INGREDIENTS

buttermilk 20 lit

Tools

* drum (20 lit)

MODE OF ACTION

Dose: use 1 lit fermented buttermilk per pump (15 lit)

Shelf life: use it within 10 days

Limitations: no limitations known

Active Ingredients: lactic acid

PREPARATION

Step 1: Put the buttermilk in a drum and close the lid.

Step 2: Put the drum into a heap of (wheat) straw.

Step 3: After 21 days the fermented buttermilk is ready for spraying.